

Founded in 1872, Jewish Family Service of Colorado (JFS) is a nonsectarian, nonprofit human services agency serving metro Denver and Boulder. JFS believes in strengthening the community by providing vital services to people in need. Every day, JFS helps people JFS helps seniors age in place, provides quality mental health counseling to individuals and families, offers training and job placement other barriers to employment, and provides food and financial aid to people in crisis. Every year, JFS benefits nearly 25,000 people of all ages, faiths, incomes, and abilities.

252 low-income seniors received 12,476 hours of homemaker services to help them continue to live safely and independently in their homes.

Jewish Family Service provided and Shabbat meal delivery programs.

36 volunteer para-chaplains provided holiday and Shabbat services and individual visits to 1,730 clients, giving them an important Jewish connection.

free lunches to low-income children during the summer.

Lunchbox Express served

28.200

to individuals and families in 2015, representing a 24% increase over the prior year.

SHALOM Denver served 322 disabilities and other barriers to prevocational job training, support services.

Net Services

Services

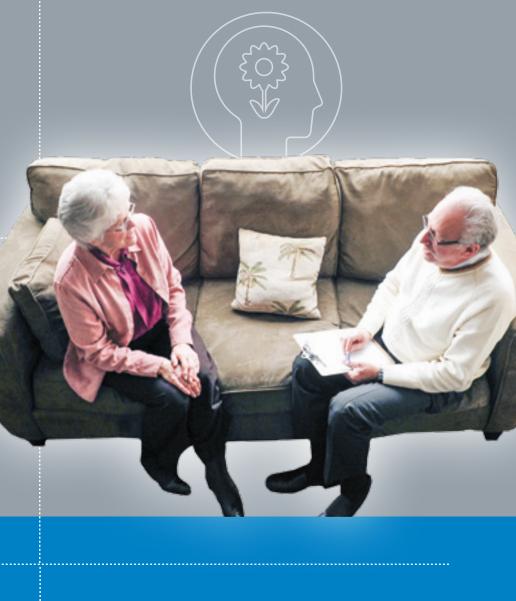

Mental Health

JFS KidSuccess and International

Denver community by delivering services based on Jewish values.

MISSION

VISION Jewish Family Service is recognized as a premier human

To enhance well-being to those in need throughout the greater services agency serving metro Denver and Boulder by providing innovative and professionally delivered services that empower participants to overcome difficult challenges and live fuller, more meaningful lives. 484 volunteers clocked hours distributing food to the hungry in our community.

32,000 hours of

1,156

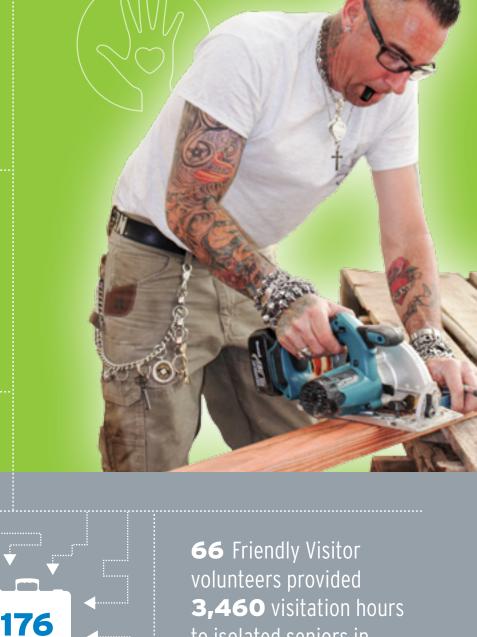

In 2015, JFS impacted

JFS mental conducted 6,092 health

therapists

JFS helped 176 people find sustainable employment through job counseling and job search services.

families in crisis, helping them with rent and other expenses so they could stay in their homes.

JFS provided $292,282 in emergency financial aid to 201 to isolated seniors in Denver and Boulder.

FY 2015 Financial Reports are available online

United

Jewish Family Service of Colorado 3201 South Tamarac Drive Denver, CO 80231 P: 303.597.5000 F: 303.597.7700 www.jewishfamilyservice.org

supported by a grant from the Conference of Jewish Material Claims Against Germany JewishFamilyService

The Conference on Jewish Material Claims Against Germany

Claims Conference

Social services for Jewish Nazi victims have been

